Russia Calls for Termination of Nuclear Tests

By TOM OCHILTREE

MOSCOW (AP) — The Supreme Soviet today called on the United States Congress and the British Parliament to work for immediate termination of nuclear weapons tests.

The Russian Parliament proposed establishment of a three-power parliamentary commission to exchange opinions and try to work out the best way to ban tests of hydrogen and atomic bombs.

As is usual, the legislators adopted the resolution without a murmur of dissent after hearing Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko declare the Soviet Union would continue producing atomic and hydrogen bombs and guided missiles until the Western powers agree to discontinue their tests.

It was Gromyko's maiden speech as foreign minister in the Supreme Soviet.

"The United States and Britain would not object if the Soviet Union took the unilateral decision to stop tests," he said. "That is a little too much. That is impossible because it would jeopardize the security of the Soviet Union and increase the danger of atomic war. We want fair play."

Gromyko said it was premature to draw any conclusions about the outcome of disarmament talks in London, and that Russia was compelled to go on producing atomic weapons "because of the competition imposed by the aggressive circles of certain countries."

Colombia Chief Threatens Strikers

By RICHARD C. MASSOCK

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP) — The government of President Gustavo Rojas Pinilla threatened criminal action today against striking bands and "business" firms that have brought activity in Colombia's major cities near a standstill.

An official spokesman said 11 persons have died in the anti-Rojas disorders that began last week, but unofficial reports said the death toll might be as high as 50. Violence flared in opposition to Rojas' declared re-election to another four-year term. University students generally led the protest demonstrations.

The Ministry of Economic Development announced that criminal actions will be started against all manufacturers who refuse to sell their products or try to hinder operation of their plants.

Officials said any banks remaining closed today would be seized and their employees drafted into military service. That action was taken yesterday against one of six Bogota banks which were shut.

Although there has been no nationwide strike call, shopowners, industrialists and bankers have closed down their operations in a continually widening protest.

Business reached a virtual standstill here in the capital. A general strike shut down industry, commerce and transport in Cali, a city of 80,000 persons 185 miles southwest of Bogota. The government spokesman said 15,000 workers are on strike in Medellin City.

Unofficial sources said the work stoppage has spread to Barranquilla and other cities.

Brig. Gen. Juan B. Cordoba, director of the government's information bureau, told reporters that demonstrators attacked the government palace in Cali yesterday and were turned back with tear gas without casualties.

Other sources said 20,000 persons took part in a protest march with three priests at their head. Cali has been the scene of some of the most violent outbreaks.

Nine of the officially acknowledged 11 deaths were reported there.

Although bankers, manufacturers and shopowners have been largely responsible for the shutdown, Cordoba implied that the real enemy of the Rojas government is communism. He said the President's opponents "are in reality helping extracountry powers who are interested in tying up the strategic areas of the Americas."

Alderman Indicted in Election Circular Deal

Battle to Save Flagship Won

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The long battle to save Adm. Dewey's flagship Olympia appeared won today, said the head of the group which wants to reserve the ship as a national shrine.

Francis D. Pastorius, president of the Currier Olympia Assn., said he had received word from Washington that the Navy had finally agreed to turn the ship over to the association instead of scrapping it.

Dewey was aboard the Olympia when he blasted the Spanish defenses at Manila Bay in May 1898 during the Spanish-American War.

Pastorius said a shipping repair firm had agreed to underwrite the repair costs until a national campaign fund can reimburse the company. It's planned to move the Olympia in the Delaware River at the foot of Market Street here, in the heart of the old colonial section of Philadelphia.

Faubus Gathers GACE to Fight Any Tax Repeal

LITTLE ROCK, (UP) — The governor's advisory committee on education approved a request yesterday of $68,000 from the Ford Foundation for a two-year study of improved teaching services.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus congratulated the committee on the work it did on the increased tax program approved by the 1957 legislature. He warned, however, that GACE would have to resist a movement to refer the sales tax increase to the people in order to protect their gains. The governor also advised GACE members to give their political support to members of the legislature who voted for the tax program.

Faubus referred to an attempt by Hope Publisher Alex H. Washburn for the one cent sales tax increase to a vote of the people in either a special election or at the 1958 general election.

"If this tax increase is rejected, the schools, the University of Arkansas, the colleges and other essential government services will face the worst confusion in the history of the state," Faubus said.

John G. Rye of Russellville, vice chairman of the state board of education and a member of the advisory committee, outlined the plan for the two-year study on teaching services.

It would be started with a statewide conference this summer of 300 professional law leaders. They would set up goals and submit them to the teachers and education leaders of the state. Local and county groups would meet to get reaction to the recommendations and suggestions that would be presented to the statewide conference in 1958.

After the final recommendations, GACE and Arkansas Education Association officials would hold clinics throughout the state to acquaint every teacher and lawman with details of the program.

Lee Roy Beasley of El Dorado, GACE chairman, said the Ford Foundation board will meet next week to consider the application for the grant. Another member of the committee, J. K. Shepherd of Little Rock, suggested that other means of financing the project be found if the Ford Foundation turns down the application.

Uses Religious Breaks to Build Office Morale

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Businessman Peter Volod has found a new way to boost office morale — with "religious breaks."

For six months 100 employees in his Chicago headquarters have interrupted their usual chores for a half-hour each Monday to hold interfaith religious discussions.

"This hasn't made any saints of us, I'm sure," said Volod, president of the King Korn Preform Stamp Co., one of the nation's largest trading stamp firms.

"But I can tell the difference in morale already. We're doing better work, the atmosphere is more cheerful, and the caste system you find in many offices has been broken down."

"I think any business office would benefit by trying our brotherhood plan."

The plan is very simple. At 9:30 each Monday work halts, the employees gather in a conference room. They spend their usual 15-minute "coffee break" plus 15 minutes of company time discussing religion.

The discussions are led by a

A Hempstead County Grand Jury yesterday indicted Alderman Clifford Franks on a charge of violating a state act which prohibits distribution of unsigned political literature.

The action followed a day long session in which several witnesses testified before the jury. Previously J. L. Brown of Hope was arrested on a similar charge, the warrant being issued by Deputy Prosecuting Attorney C. V. Nunn Jr.

Mr. Franks was arrested late yesterday by the Hempstead Sheriff and posted $500 bond pending trial.

The charges resulted in connection with the distribution of unsigned circulars the day before citizens of Hope approved a city manager form of government last month.

The Grand Jury's report to Judge Brown follows: "First and partial report of Grand Jury to honorable Lyle Brown, Judge of the Hempstead Circuit Court."

"We, your Grand Jury for the April, 1957, term of the Hempstead Circuit Court have been in session on this date and desiring to recess temporarily, beg leave to report as follows:

"We have spent a full day interviewing witnesses in connection with alleged violations of the law growing out of the conduct of the recent City Manager election in Hope. The law in question is that which requires all political advertisements and circulars to be signed by the individuals or organization causing the same to be printed or circulated."

"In connection with this investigation we are returning herewith one indictment involving two counts. Prior to our meeting the Prosecuting Attorney filed a charge direct in the Circuit Court against another party alleged to have been involved. This action was taken by the Prosecuting Attorney because the defendant in that case admitted his participation and rendered it unnecessary for the Grand Jury to go into that particular case."

"We have reviewed all advertising used in connection with the aforementioned election. The newspaper advertising was signed on

U. S. Youths Back From Rebellion

HAVANA (AP) — Two American teen-age boys are back with their families at the Guantanamo Naval Base after nearly three months in the mountains of southeast Cuba with guerrillas fighting the forces of President Fulgencio Batista.

A third Navy man stayed in the Sierra Maestra Mountains with the rebel band led by Fidel Castro the returning boys reported.

Those who came back were Victor J. Buehman, 17, son of Cmdr. Joseph Buehman of Coronado, Calif., and Michael Garvey of Watertown, Mass.

The lad who stayed was Charles E. Ryan Jr., 20, son of Hospitalier I. C. Charles E. Ryan of Monson, Mass.

All the fathers are stationed at the U. S. naval base at Guantanamo.

The naval base said Buehman and Garvey were in good health and happy to be back home.

Protestant clergyman, a Roman Catholic priest, or a rabbi. They rotate from week to week, explain their faith, answer questions.

"Sometimes the discussions last nearly an hour, and we have to break the up," said Volod, generally. "Participation is entirely voluntary, but now everyone in the office attends."

"As a matter of fact, neighbors and waitresses from a nearby restaurant have started dropping in, as well as visiting salesmen, and our conference room is getting crowded."

The clergy's response has been very enthusiastic. A number of clergymen from other faiths, including a Japanese Shinto priest have asked to appear."

Volod, who is Jewish, married to a Roman Catholic and has a brother-in-law who is a priest, believes that misunderstanding and ignorance lie behind much of the prejudice among people — at the office as well as the world level.

"You can't have a successful business operation if there is in-

Woman of the Year Is Honored

CHICAGO (AP) — A young mother, whose love in raising a foster son, who was deaf, unable to speak, and believed mentally retarded, was honored yesterday for the "miracle of her achievement."

Ten years ago Mrs. Ann LaVine heard a radio plea for foster homes. She was 25 and the mother of two young sons but she offered a home for another child, preferably girl.

She got instead a 5-year-old boy, deaf and mute. Mrs. LaVine said she believed almost immediately the child was not deaf.

"He seemed to hear me when I called," she said. "He'd perk up and look around."

Gradually, over the years, she taught him to talk.

"I'd take him around the house," Mrs. LaVine said, "pointing out many things, calling them by name — the way you would with an infant."

Her devotion to her foster son began to pay off. Soon he was able to quit the special classes he attended and enroll in a regular school. He showed a notable artistic talent. He became a good student and athlete.

In addition to the foster son, now a healthy, normal 15-year-old, the LaVines have three sons of their own, 8, 12 and 14, and two other foster sons.

Mrs. LaVine, in addition to running the house, and mothering her five boys, is bus driver, scorekeeper, first-aid technician and bat boy for the neighborhood baseball team in suburban Oak Lawn.

Her husband, Rudolph, an aircraft engineer, beamed happily yesterday as his wife was chosen Foster Mother of the Year in Cook County by the county commissioners and County Department of Welfare.

She was among 17 finalists. "I wish all the mothers here could have won," said the smiling, 35-year-old Mrs. LaVine.

Beck Sold Own Mortgage for $11,585 Profit

By HEBERT FOSTER

WASHINGTON (UP) — Teamsters Union President Dave Beck and an associate made $11,585 profit from selling their own mortgages to the widow of Beck's best friend, the Senate Labor Rackets committee said.

Beck was trustee of the widow's fund to which he sold the mortgages, the committee said.

Donal Hedlund, Seattle mortgage banker who shared the profit with Beck, said under questioning that the deal went like this:

Beck as trustee of Teamsters union funds put up money for Beck and Hedlund as individuals to buy some 30 home mortgages with a face value of $71,007 on May 28, 1956. They bought the mortgages at a discount, however.

The home owners made payments on the mortgages so they were worth only $61,127 by last December, the committee said.

But Beck was also trustee of the Raymond Leheny Memorial Fund of about $80,000, which the union had raised for the widow of Beck's best friend. In that capacity, he sold to the memorial fund the mortgages which he and Hedlund held.

Hedlund said the sale to the Beck trust invested millions of dollars of union funds and profited from brokerage fees which were "kicked back" to him.

Hedlund had testified earlier memorial fund — in which words, to Mrs. Leheny — was paid at the full face value of the mortgages, yielding him and Beck a profit of $11,585.04.

Then Beck as union president was told that the mortgages had been disposed of, and gave him back a check for $61,127.

Hedlund testified about two companies. One, National Mortgage, Inc., which he headed, was

Forest Fires Taking a Heavy Toll

By The Associated Press

A raging forest fire that threatened the heart of Plymouth, Mass., historic home of the Pilgrims, was brought under control today.

Fire officials expressed fear, however, that the fire, one of many flaming in Northeast woodlands, might rekindle as temperatures rose and parched conditions continued.

Thousands of fire-fighters joined in halting the Plymouth fire just short of Route 3, a main highway between Boston and Cape Cod.

This was the fifth successive day of forest fires in the populous Northeast.

From Pennsylvania through New England and into Quebec and Ontario, fires raged out of control. Some fires were checked only to mushroom up again as wind whipped dying embers into living flame.

New Telescope May Solve Mars Mystery

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE

AP Science Reporter
CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — A "tranquillizer" for telescopes is getting clearer pictures of our neighbor planets, and may solve the mystery of Mars' so-called canals.

It's a TV device that stops the nervous jumping about of a planet when viewed through a telescope. The earth's shimmering blanket of air causes this whirling dervish effect.

The television device steadies or tranquilizes the dancing image picked up by a telescope. Snapshot or time exposure photographs of the TV screen then can be taken to see better how the planet really looks.

This promising new technique was described today to the American Astronomical Society by John H. DeWitt, Robert H. Hardie and Dr. Carl K. Seyfert of the Dyer Observatory, Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn.

The image seen by the telescope is picked up by a TV rangemeter keeps the image centered and steadied, correcting for nervous shimmering when light rays from the planet pass through the earth's air.

The device was not ready when Mars made a very close visit last summer. Astronomers hoped then to solve the puzzle of its faint lines sometimes seen visually by telescope. The lines gave rise to popular speculation they might be "canals."

Mars comes pretty close again this summer, and if the canals can be photographed, the Nashville tea hopes to pick them up, Dr. Seyfert said.

The TV stabilizer is being used on a 24-inch telescope. Adapted to larger telescopes, it might reveal more detail of "tranquillized" planets.

Red River Is Rising in Louisiana

NATCHITOCHES, La. (UP) — Backwater from Red River rose higher and higher in Clarance, La., today while the river itself gnawed away at the tops of new levees that so far have prevented a wall of flood water from running into the town.

"The levee is always in danger because it is a new levee," Sheriff Earl Morris said. "The longer the crest stays against it, the more danger there is. But we are continually working on it to build it higher."

He said a break also would imperil the little town of Powhatan in the Natchitoches-Clarance area. Lights were strung up along the levees last night, so emergency crews could spot threatening breaks at once.

Morris said the Red River at San Angelo and Christoval in West Texas receded to normal after a flash flood yesterday. A total of 116 houses were affected at San Angelo.

Williams Raps Three Homers in Bosox Win

By JOE REICHLER

Of The Associated Press

I love him, despite him... cheer him, boo him... but no real baseball fan can ignore Ted Williams, nor the fact that "The Kid," after 18 years, is still "Mr. Big" of the Boston Red Sox.

Williams has been the heart and soul of the Red Sox attack ever since he joined them in 1939. But not since 1940, when he led the team to its only pennant in 38 years—and won the league's most valuable player award to boot—has he demonstrated his importance to the Sox cause, as he has this season.

Yesterday was a typical example when Ted smashed three home runs and drove in all the runs as the Red Sox lounded the Chicago White Sox 4-1 for their fourth straight. The victory boosted Boston to within 11 percentage points of second and only a half game from the American League leading New York Yankees who dropped a 10-4 decision to Cleveland.

Ted's value to the Red Sox is best illustrated by the team's record. In the 16 games that Williams has appeared in the lineup, the team has won 11. In the four he did not, the team lost three. Another red hot team, the Cincinnati Reds, stretched their winning streak to nine with a 7-6 triumph over Brooklyn. A grand slam homer by sizzling Don Hoak and a pair of four-baggers by substitute first baseman George Crowe furnished all the runs and gave the Reds their first Eastern sweep since the pennant winning 1940 team.

The Reds' second straight in Ebbets Field zoomed them into the same basic doctrine of "mutual help expressed by the Golden Rule. "If you put an extra 'o' in God," Volld concluded, smiling, "it spells good."

5 out of 10 Smaller Cars wear a Pontiac Price Tag —yet none give you Any of Pontiac's Advantages

PONTIAC GIVES YOU UP TO 8.9% MORE SOLID CAR PER DOLLAR!

Not one of the smaller cars can give you the heavy-duty construction, the road-hugging lift and solid security that surround you in every Pontiac. Yet Pontiac's the nimblest heavyweight you ever managed—and your Pontiac dealer can show you more than six dozen advanced engineering reasons why! Pontiac has gone all out to make this genuine big car the most docile package of might you ever had the pleasure of boasting. You'll find Pontiac's exclusive Precision-Touch Controls make steering and braking the surest, easiest you've ever experienced! Park it, cruise it, try it in stop-and-go traffic... this is driving the smaller jobs can't possibly equal.

PONTIAC GIVES YOU 4 TO 7 INCHES MORE WHEELBASE!

The small cars extend bumpers and fenders to look big—but Pontiac puts the extra length where it counts—between the wheels! Here's extra length that brackets the bumps instead of riding on them. And this extra length shows up inside, too, in stretch-out space for six foaters. Add to Pontiac's bonus in length its all-new suspension system and you have an exclusive level-line ride up car at any price can surpass... and a built-in sense of direction and security that will spoil you for the smaller cars forever!

Whether you judge a power plant by engineering statistics or on-the-road performance, Pontiac's Strato-Streak V-8 stands head and shoulders above anything in the low-price field. Your Pontiac dealer will be happy to show you a complete facts-and-figures comparison—then an eye-opening test drive in traffic or out on the highway will supply all the heart-lifting proof you need that Pontiac has separated the men from the boys when it comes to performance!

—AND PONTIAC HAS ALWAYS BEEN FAMOUS AS ONE OF AMERICA'S TOP TRADE-INS!

Maybe it comes as a surprise to you that so much more car can be yours at the same price you've seen on the smaller cars. But there's the fact! And Pontiac is a wonderful investment, too. As you know, it has always commanded a top trade-in. So why not step out of the small-car class and into a Pontiac... there's nothing in your way. Your Pontiac dealer has the keys and an eye-opening offer waiting for you right now!

Sunday School Lesson

By WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D.

I think it would be admitted that there are highlights and "lowlights" in the Book of Genesis — the book of beginnings.

What was then begun, in both highlights and low, has continued and been reflected in the history of mankind. The first murder was the beginning of murders; the sins of Sodom and Gomorrah, the defects and delinquencies that are by no means confined to juveniles, all reveal how modern man is linked with man in the beginning and how very little, man at his worst, has changed.

But, fortunately, there is another story, and the highlights of Genesis in revealing man at his best are very high indeed.

The figure of Abraham stands in that day of beginnings as supremely a man of faith and peace, with whom the modern quest of peace has not yet caught up. In spirit, method, and achievement as a peacemaker, Abraham set an example that sets one thinking what a different world of men this would have been if his example had been followed.

That story of how Abraham settled peacefully the strife between his herdsmen and Lot's is Glenah Huckabee, treasurer. The president then declared the day as "Mrs. Ward's Day," since she is retiring this year after 27 years teaching in Hempstead county.

Mrs. Royce Weisenberger, who went to school to Mrs. Ward has had a child in her room and has taught with her five years, represented the P. T. A. and presented her with a certificate of appreciation. Mrs. King then presented her with a pair of silver and crystal compasses from the P. T. A. members of the 4, 5, and 6th grades of Oglesby and a teaspoon in her chosen pattern from Garland teachers.

Mrs. Ward will be missed by her fellow workers, children and parents, and was wished a full and enjoyable vacation.

Tea follows P. T. A. Meeting. A lovely tea in honor of Mrs. Ward was held in the lunch room of Oglesby School following the regular P. T. A. meeting Wednesday afternoon from 4 to 5.

The tea table with a central arrangement of pink roses interspersed with white snapdragons and laid with a white cloth was most attractive, and other points of interest held bouquets of flowers. Pouring were Mrs. Homer Beyerley and Mrs. David Waddell, both past presidents of Oglesby P. T. A.

To greet the guests as they arrived were Mrs. Frank King, Mrs. James F. Ward, Mrs. T. V. Meser, Mrs. Royce Weisenberger, Mrs. Grady Williams, Miss Kathleen Broach, and Mrs. James McLarty. Others assisting were, Mrs. Coy Breeding, chairman of the decoration and arrangements committee, Mrs. W. E. Tolleson, Mrs. W. H. Allison and Mrs. Raymond Byers.

Mrs. Florence Hyatt Hostess To Alpha Delta Chapter

The Alpha Delta chapter of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society met May 6 at 4 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Florence Hyatt with Mrs. Anna Mae Williams and Miss Gwendolyn Dean as co-hostesses.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Phoebe Perkins, who asked Mrs. Mildred McPherson to read the collect. During the business session Mrs. Perkins brought the organization up to date on the developments for the Southwest Regional meeting to be held in Hot Springs in August. She also distributed typed information of the activities of the various other chapters in the state. Three appointments were made; namely, Mrs. Mamie Jackson to review each month the Delta Kappa Gamma International bulletin, Mrs. Louise Fuller to review the state newsletter, and Mrs. Joella Armour to keep a scrapbook.

After the president welcomed the two new members, Mrs. Mary Nell Turner and Mrs. Julia Messer, she then introduced the guest speakers, Mrs. Thelma With and Miss Bessie Grene, retired teachers, both of whom presented very inspirational accounts of their careers and retirements. Their remarks made us realize so much the improved teaching conditions for which we can be grateful, as well as the joys of retirement to which we can look forward with eager anticipation.

The meeting was concluded by singing the International Delta Kappa Gamma song, with Mrs. Florence Hyatt, music chairman, at the piano.

During the social hour a delicious dessert plate was served to 18 members and two guests.

'Tea and Sympathy' Opens Sunday at Saenger Theater

Deborah Kerr and John Kerr repeat their original stage roles in "Tea and Sympathy," M-G-M filmization of the Robert Anderson drama, one of the most talked-about plays in Broadway history. Miss Kerr is seen as the wife of the housemaster at a New England prep school, with whom student John Kerr falls in love.

One of the year's outstanding motion pictures is brought to the Saenger screen Sunday with the showing of "Tea and Sympathy," M-G-M's film version in Cinema Scope and color of the great Broadway stage success.

The picture retains the stellar team of the original cast, Deborah Kerr and John Kerr, with the screen version written by the play's author, Robert Anderson. He has done a masterful job in transferring this compassionate, dramatically cogent story of a seventeen-year-old prep school boy caught up in an infatuation with the wife of his housemaster to the wider canvas afforded by the CinemaScope cameras.

Without sacrificing any of the intimate touches, the screen offers the playwright a far wider range in presenting background and local color. Whereas the play was confined to two sets, the film version of "Tea and Sympathy" ranges from the housemaster's home and garden to sequences on a bench,

THE STORY: Milo March, who is investigating the death of Anna Maria Periclosa, is threatened in his room by a boy with a knife. ## CHAPTER X V

I had just finished eating breakfast when there was a knock on the door. I thought it was the waiter back for the dishes. "Avanti," I called.

The door opened and a man stepped inside. I'd never seen him before, but he had an official look one of the greatest of all stories. And beside it is the other story of how Abraham acted when Lot's bad choice got him in trouble when he "pitched his tent toward Sodom" (Genesis 13:12).

When he saw Lot and his family about to be doomed in the wicked cities he did not say, "I told you so." He did not even gloat in his own rectitude over the prospective destruction of the wicked, as a lesser moralist might have done.

He was concerned lest the innocent should be condemned with the guilty. Not only was he concerned with the protection of the righteous remnant, but he made his plea in a manner that profoundly manifested his belief in a righteous God.

We are so familiar with the conception of God as a Father, and God of Love, in the later Jewish prophecies and the New Testament that I wonder whether we grasp the daring and grandeur of Abraham's belief in God as a person, toward whom he approached, not in superstition or object fear, but with whom he dared to reason about righteousness.

When one contrasts that with the bowing down to wood and stone, and with the imputation of all sorts of human defects and weaknesses to gods and goddesses by the Greeks and Romans, one must appreciate the significance of Abraham's faith. One can also understand the Jewish commandment about graven images, much as it conflicts with appreciation of the glories of Greek and other sculpture.

The one regrettable lapse in Abraham was the matter of the denial of his wife, Sarah (Genesis 20), which seems so inconsistent with everything else concerning him, that it is hard to understand.

It is an evidence of the frank honesty of the Bible that the incident was not suppressed. Perhaps it stands to remind us that even the great pioneer of faith and peace was not perfect, and that the life and times were primitive. Would that "progress" had made in all things a better modern story of mankind, for the highlights of Genesis are very high.

day. The frost got a little thicker. "Mr. March," he said, "have you seen the morning papers? Speculatively, have you seen this paper?" He produced one from behind his back. By squinting I could see that it was Vie Nuove.

He unfolded the paper crisply and read: "Mr. Milo March, representative of the American firm of Intercontinental Insurance, in an exclusive interview, stated that he was convinced that Anna Maria Periclosa was murdered."

"Sounds all right," I said mildly. "I'm Milo March. I am a representative of Intercontinental Insurance. They are an American company. I suppose it was an exclusive interview; nobody else was present. Anna Maria Periclosa was murdered. Everything seems to be in order."

He was breathing hard, but in a genteel fashion. "Mr. March, are you aware what newspaper this is?"

"Italian?" I guessed brightly. I was aware that beneath the jacket of his suit Mr. Blaine's heart was beating rapidly, but he was determined that Grotton and Harvard would carry the day.

"Mr. March," he said slowly, "Vie Nuove is the largest Communist newspaper in Italy, a country which has 2,000,000 registered Communists."

I opened my eyes as wide as I could. "Communists?" I said. "He never told me that. He merely said he was a journalist. That was very unfair of him, wasn't it?"

I'm sure that Mr. Blaine loved his job, but at that moment he would have probably traded it in to become a deck hand on a cattle boat. "Not only is it a Communist paper," he said, "but you couldn't have found a more explosive subject if you'd tried. Vie Nuove uses your statement to imply that the murder of the girl was committed by Riccardo Balena, whose father is the Minister of Interior and an integral factor of the Christian-Democrat government. They do it so successfully that a few independent papers are already out demanding that Balena resign. By the weekend, they may very well be demanding that the entire government resign. The Communists will certainly be doing so. They may even succeed and be able to use this to get in power. If the Communists capture the government, they will have you, Mr. March, to thank for it."

"You flatter me," I muttered modestly. He took a deep breath. "Not only that, Mr. March, but the news of your little interview has already been cabled to papers back in the States. I am afraid well be hearing about this from the State Department. I have no doubt there will be other calls throughout the day."

"Seems like a lot of fuss to make over one little accident." "Little accident," he said, "Grotton and Harvard almost lost the battle. 'Mr. March, we know all about you. You are a troublemaker. At least twice before you have almost caused an international incident.'"

"Once for the State Department and once for Central Intelligence,"

DOROTHY DIX

So It Ain't Ladylike! Telephone Him — Fast

Dear Dorothy Dix: A few months ago I was dining in a restaurant with some friends when an acquaintance of theirs came to our table. Evidently he was attracted to me, and wasted no time in learning my name and address. He phoned, we met, and in three dates he was becoming embarrassingly ardent. So, I told him not to come back. Silly me — I thought I didn't like him! Before he was off the front porch I regretted my hasty decision. How can I get him back?

CARLA

Dear Carla: It certainly seems dumb to let a good romance like this go to waste. Did you ever think of telephoning or writing? Of course, proper young ladies aren't supposed to call their gentlemen friends, but he'd be so overjoyed to hear your voice that I'm sure he wouldn't question the etiquette.

I said, "That is beside the point. I am aware that you have served your country. But you seem oblivious to the fact that actions have consequences. Sometimes very serious ones. You will do anything that helps your immediate task. I gave him my most angelic smile."

"Mr. March," he said grimly, "there is a plane leaving Rome for New York in two hours. I suggest that you be on it."

"Oh, I couldn't do that. I have a date for the weekend and it might cause a lot of bad feeling if I didn't show up. Don't forget, Mr. Blaine, that every American in Europe is a sort of unofficial ambassador."

"We can send you back," "You can try, I said. I decided it was tied to stop playing around. "It might make quite a stink, Mr. Blaine. Intercontinental is an American company, but it is also an Italian company. I work for them and I am within the scope of my job when I say that I'm convinced one of our policyholders was murdered. That is not interfering with the Italian government. If you toss me out of here, every newspaper in Europe will be on your neck."

"I didn't say we were sending you back. I merely said we can. 'Relax, Buster,' I said. 'There isn't even a bootblack in Rome who isn't already convinced that young Balena murdered this girl. If Balena gets it, it's better to find out and get it over with.'"

Mother

... ah, there's a word for you ... Mother. Surely, it is second only to the word Jesus, or God. Without mothers there might be little need for Heaven ... there would be no souls to go there. Mother gave you life and love ... what have you given her? It's a meager tribute that we should pause once a year and dedicate one day to her. Yes, there is something very special, something extra that comes only from mother. Then, do her honor this Mother's Day. Turn the tables on her and prepare her dinner. Take her to God's House for an hour of worship. She probably won't ask it of you but you owe a debt ... why not pay some of it to her.

God bless Mothers.

YOU IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a byproduct of the church. It is here that young and old alike are shown how to live. The church is a place where we can find the strength and courage to live our lives for God. The church is a place where we can find the love and support we need to live our lives for God. The church is a place where we can find the peace and joy we need to live our lives for God.

Ex-Big Leaguer Is Hospitalized

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Harold (Pete) Reiser, former National League batting champion famed for his collision with outfield walls, is under observation for a heart condition at St. Luke's Hospital.

Reiser, a St. Louis native, left his job as manager of the Kokomo, Ind., Class D Midwest League team Tuesday after being ill for two weeks.

The team was in second place when Reiser decided to see a heart specialist. Carl Ackerman, a Brooklyn Dodger scout, replaced Reiser as manager temporarily.

The 38-year-old Reiser won the batting title in 1941 with a .343 average for the Dodgers. He played six years for the Dodgers, two with the Boston Braves, one season with Pittsburgh and ended his career with Cleveland in 1952.

Logart and Ortega Fight on TV Tonight

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (UP) — Contenders Isaac Logart of Cuba and Gaspar Ortega of Mexico engage in a 12-round "rubber match" tonight for a probable shot at the welterweight crown.

Although each won a previous meeting, Logart is favored at 11-5 (odds) to beat lanky Ortega, a long-range sharpshooter, this time at the Syracuse War Memorial auditorium.

Their significant bout will be televised and broadcast nationally by NBC at 8 p. m. (CST).

The winner will be in position to challenge champion Carmen Basilio of nearby Chittanooga, N. Y., for the 147-pound crown. Or he will be geared to fight top-ranked ex-champion Tony DeMarco for the vacant crown in case Basilio wins the middleweight championship from Sugar Ray Robinson in September. Basilio could not hold two titles.

In the rankings DeMarco is number one, Ortega number two and Logart number three; but it's unlikely DeMarco could get another shot at Basilio, who already knocked him out twice in title bouts.

In their two previous encounters, Logart, 24, won a unanimous 10-round decision over Ortega, 21, at Madison Square Garden, March 16, 1956; but Ortega turned the tables with a split 10-round verdict at Boston, Oct. 17. Neither scored a knockdown in the 20 rounds of lively fighting.

Logart's body attack weakened the Mexican in their first bout and earned a decisive 6-3-1, 6-3-1, 7-2-1 decision. But Ortega's long-range counter-punching and stamina earned the votes of two officials in their return tilt.

Bank Burglar Is Given 21 Years

YELLVILLE. (UP) — A 23-year-old would-be bank robber who shot a sheriff was sentenced to serve 21 years in prison today.

Chris Dart of Denver, Colo., was sentenced by Judge Wody Murray shortly before noon today.

Dart was surprised last week attempting to break into the back door of the Bank of Yellville by Sheriff Jack Pace. Dart opened fire, hitting the sheriff twice in the arm.

Dart, who foreplay lived here, was captured several days later nearby when he sought food and shelter from a on-e time neighbor of his.

Judge Murray gave Dart 15 years for assault with intent to kill, three years for burglary and three years for possession of burglary tools.

Dr. Charles I. Thomas, an eye specialist, said as soon as he could see the retina clearly he could tell "pretty much what the prognosis medical forecast will be."

A report issued by Dr. Thomas and Dr. Din Kelly, team physician, said X-rays would "be postponed for the next day or so."

The report said that the swelling around Score's injured eye and his broken nose "has been reduced and in general he looks better." It added that his condition is "slightly improved" and "at this time there appears to be no other complications."

Chiscox in Tie With Yankees for First Place

By JOE FRECHLER

The Associated Press

The Chicago White Sox were back in first place today — tied with the New York Yankees — but manager Al Lopez isn't kidding himself. He knows the team, the way it stands, is not of championship caliber.

He knew before he even consented to take over the club that it had spee, defense and pretty good pitching. What concerned him was the hitting, or lack of it.

Nothing has happened to allay the manager's fears — deposit the team's lofty status. In fact, it's even worse than Lopez thought.

Including yesterday's game, won from Boston 2-0, the White Sox have a team batting average of .233 lowest in the American
